TO PARAGUAY

A dense collection of numerous wooden masks, likely of indigenous Paraguayan origin, displayed against a dark blue background. The masks exhibit a wide variety of expressions, including smiling, neutral, and somewhat menacing or surprised faces. Some masks have distinct features like large eyes, prominent noses, or animal-like ears. The text "WELCOME TO PARAGUAY" is overlaid in the center in a bold, white, sans-serif font.

A close-up, top-down view of a bowl of Paraguayan Vori soup. The soup is served in a white ceramic bowl with a blue rim and red decorative patterns. It contains large, pale yellow manioc (cassava) dumplings, chunks of yellow potatoes, and diced red tomatoes. The soup is garnished with fresh green herbs, likely parsley, and small dark seeds. The background shows a wooden table and a colorful woven textile.
